

City of Tulare, California Proclamation

National Library Week

Whereas, National Library Week, April 3-9, 2022, is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association, celebrating the many diverse contributions of libraries and librarians across the country, now marking more than 60 years; and

Whereas, Tulare Public Library annually participates in National Library Week with special events and activities for the community, and

Whereas, the public library provides much needed and unique resources to the citizens of Tulare and the surrounding communities, such as free access to books, media, online resources, programs, and more; and,

Whereas, all members of the community are welcome at and benefit from the public library; and,

Now, therefore, I, Dennis A. Mederos, Mayor of the City of Tulare, on behalf of the Tulare City Council, do hereby recognize the valuable contributions made by our public libraries, and do proclaim April 3-9, 2022 as National Library Week at the Tulare Public Library with the theme of "Connect With Your Library" and do encourage all citizens of Tulare to celebrate with us.

Dated this 5th day of April, 2022
