

Proclamation

WHEREAS in Federal fiscal year 2021, 3.9 million reports were made to child protective services;

WHEREAS child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone;

WHEREAS our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of Tulare;

WHEREAS child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse;

WHEREAS protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children;

WHEREAS effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the partnerships created between child welfare professionals, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses, law enforcement agencies, and families;

WHEREAS communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families;

WHEREAS we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment; and

WHEREAS prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE we, the City Council of the City of Tulare, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2023 as in the City of Tulare and encourage all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.

National Child Abuse Prevention Month

Dated this 18th day of April 2023.
